

Eastlake Traditional Wall Hung Bathroom Basin - 465mm

Classic ceramic wall hung basin with a single offset tap hole

Bring traditional character to a smaller bathroom, cloakroom or en-suite with the Eastlake wall hung basin. Its classic rounded shape and crisp white ceramic finish give it a timeless look, while the wall mounted design keeps the floor beneath clear and helps create a more open feel.

Key features

- Traditional design - classic detailing and a rounded shape for an elegant period-inspired look.
- Wall hung installation - no pedestal or vanity unit is required beneath the basin.
- Compact 465mm width - a practical size for smaller bathrooms, cloakrooms and en-suites.
- Single offset tap hole - designed for use with a compatible mono basin mixer tap.
- Gloss white ceramic - a smooth, easy-to-clean finish suited to a wide range of bathrooms.
- Built-in overflow - includes an overflow hole and requires a compatible slotted basin waste.
- 10-year guarantee - for added reassurance.
