Islay Up and Down Outdoor Wall Light with PIR Sensor, Anthracite

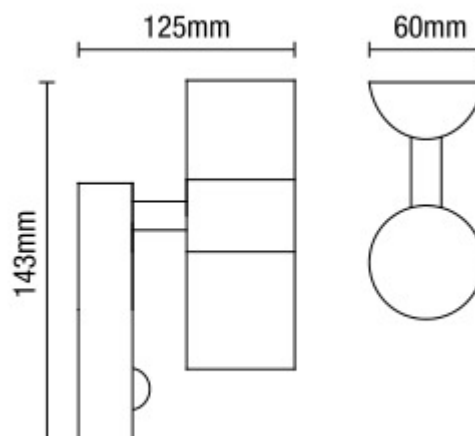

CZ-29319-ANTH

The Islay Up and Down Outdoor Wall Light with PIR Sensor offers a sleek, minimalist lighting solution for modern homes. Finished in a stylish anthracite colour, its up and down light design creates a stunning pool of illumination across your walls, enhancing the exterior aesthetic. With an IP44 rating, it's water-resistant and suitable for outdoor use. The integrated PIR sensor uses infrared technology to detect motion, automatically activating the light when movement is detected, adding both convenience and security.
